Terms and Conditions:

1. ICMP (UK) Ltd (The Institute) will make every effort to ensure each course is delivered as advertised. However, the Institute reserves the right to make reasonable changes to course start dates, end dates, timetables and course location. Students will be given sufficient notice of any such changes.
2. Course fees are not refundable or transferable except in case of material breach by the Institute or in the absolute discretion of Company management. Students must advise the Institute in writing if they wish to defer or cancel all or part of their course at anytime. Non-attendance of classes does not constitute cancellation or deferment of a course.
3. In the case of unforeseen circumstances, or if insufficient student numbers are enrolled onto a course, the Institute reserves the right to cancel any course prior to commencement and a full refund will be provided to any enrolled students in this case.
4. The Institute reserves the right to expel or suspend any student from all or part of their course in cases of unacceptable conduct.
5. The Institute cannot accept responsibility or liability for death or personal injuries except for those resulting from the Institute's negligence or breach of duty. In particular, it is the responsibility of the student to ensure adequate ear protection at all times when using amplification equipment and to ensure playing and practice routines do not cause injury or harm.
6. The Institute shall not be responsible for students' belongings, including musical equipment, whilst on Institute premises and so cannot in the absence of any negligence or breach of duty by the Institute or its servants and agents be held liable for loss, damage or theft of said belongings.
7. The Institute shall not be liable to applicants for loss of profit or for any indirect, special or consequential loss or damage of any kind. Any other liability of the Institute to applicants under or in connection with the provision of a course (other than liability for death or personal injury from the Institute's negligence or breach of duty) shall in no event exceed the fees payable in respect of such course.
8. In addition to these terms and conditions, students agree to abide by policies and procedures as set out in the course/student handbook and/or via notices displayed on Institute premises from time to time
9. Students will be held responsible for any loss, theft or damage to the Institute's property however caused by them and will indemnify the Institute against any resulting liabilities and expenses.
10. This and any other agreement between the applicant and the Institute shall be governed by the laws of England and Wales.
